

EMPOWERING YOUR BUSINESS

Through Expert HR Support

Tick HR Solutions was founded in 2018 with a clear mission: to provide quality HR support to small businesses throughout the UK

The inspiration behind creating Tick HR Solutions stemmed from a recognition of the unique challenges that small businesses face when it comes to managing human resources. Many small businesses cannot afford in-house HR, yet they still need to ensure compliance with employment laws, create effective HR policies, and manage employee relations efficiently.

Understanding the Needs of Growing Businesses:

As businesses grow, their HR needs become more complex. We saw firsthand how crucial it was for these businesses to have access to expert HR support without the overhead costs associated with hiring HR staff. This gap in the market motivated us to create a service that could offer flexible, tailored HR solutions, whether on a remote or onsite basis, to fit the specific needs and culture of each organisation.

Commitment to Quality and Efficiency: Our goal was to ensure that small businesses could receive the same level of HR expertise and support that larger companies enjoy, but at a fraction of the cost. By providing comprehensive HR services, including policy development, compliant contracts, handbooks, and onsite support. Tick HR helps businesses focus on their core operations while we handle their HR needs efficiently and compassionately.

Resolving Employee Issues Before They Escalate

We have helped numerous businesses resolve employee issues before they escalate to tribunal proceedings, saving businesses time, money, and stress. Here's how we achieve this:

- Early intervention
- Coaching managers
- Clear communication
- Compliance expertise
