What to Expect

Performed by Tick HR's very own professional Trainers. Jacqui, Kim and Holly have over 45 years' experience working in the world of human resources and gaining a good insight into the challenges of being a manager. This training isn't 'death by PowerPoint', our management training is filled with real life cases in the eyes of the law, interactive activities and discussion time.

Reflection and Key Takeaways

All delegates are provided with a certificate to show their achievements of undertaking our management training course. We take time out to go over what they have learnt and what they are looking forward to taking back to their managerial roles and you, the employer can refer back to the management training course during their performance reviews or when future challenges arise, the manager can revert back to their training.

Location

We normally carry out our management training at Inara Systems based in Londonthorpe, Grantham and the training includes a light lunch. We can be flexible and use premises closer to you or on your own site for other dates.

How to Book

Our next Management Training will be taking place on Tuesday 17th December and Wednesday 18th December 2024 at Inara Systems in Grantham. We envisage the days to start at 9am finish around 4pm. Final times will be provided closer to the training days.

If you would like to book an employee onto our comprehensive Management Training Course, please email us at training@tickhr.com where we can confirm your employees place. We know this course will be sold out so please RSVP as soon as possible.
